A Doll's House – Drama by Henrik Ibsen

Directed by Eric Beck

Life appears to be taking a turn for the better for Torvald and Nora Helmer. It is the holiday season, and thanks to Torvald's new job, they will be able to afford a nice Christmas for their children and can look forward to a future that promises security and happiness. But just as things are looking up, into their lives come two figures from the past who threaten to reveal histories they would rather keep hidden and to upset the delicate balance of their relationship. This production will give a contemporary twist to the play that is widely credited with giving birth to the modern theater.

October 20 to November 4 on Friday and Saturday at 8 pm
2 pm matinees on Sunday, October 29 and Saturday, November 4
